The Biggest October Business in the History of the Store is the record of the month just closed in SUITS, COATS and DRESSES. For Monday and this week there are many fresh arrivals in the latest and smartest fashions in suits, coats, dresses and skirts. The garments were carefully chosen from the foremost manufacturers. They are correct in every detail of style, workmanship, fabric and trimming.

No good style that is popular has been omitted from our display and no unworthy style has been included in it. There are plenty of plain, simple models for conservative dressers as well as more extreme styles for those of radical tastes.

It is important to remember that these garments are all brand new, many of them having arrived only during the past few days.

New Suits at $15, $16.95, $20, $25 and $28.50.
New Velvet Suits at $25, $35 to $95.

And the styles are exclusive—their duplicates will not be found in St. Joseph.

Important, too, is the fact that our prices are based on the actual value of the garments and not on any fanciful conception of the value of novelty or exclusiveness. The values are uniformly excellent.

New Dresses in satin and velvet combinations at $17.95 to $25.

New Coats at $8.95 to $25.

New Skirts $5.95 to $20.

ST. JOSEPH MAN'S NEW PATENT
R. J. Robinson, patentee and manufacturer of the Robinson Adjustable Bed and Couch has perfected an operating table upon which letters patent have been applied for. That they will be granted is the assurance of V. J. Evans & Co., patent attorneys at Washington, D. C., who have also asked Mr. Robinson to subscribe for $1,000 worth of his company's stock.

The new patent follows the lines of his other adjustable articles, with the addition of a porcelain top, which makes it sanitary in all respects and permits sterilization of any kind.

SULLIVAN COUNTY HAS THE RIGHT SORT
It makes us tired to hear newspapers and individuals claiming to be Democrats talking about "Federal Democrats" and "State Administration Democrats." Up here in Sullivan County we have only Democrats. If some of these quibblers, some of these non-constituted persons who talk themselves so seriously and who call themselves Democrats would come up here in Sullivan County and dwell among us real Democrats we would know that "Federal" and "state administration" dope out of them as quick as a dose of paragore will stop a crying baby. There should be only one kind of Democrat on earth; and he should be able to stand the "acid test" of letting the majority rule and voting the ticket after it is nominated. They are the only kind of Democrats recognized by the rank and file of the party. Cut it out, boys. Let the other fellow do the knocking and quibbling—Milan Standard.

Spelman's restaurant, 418 Francis street, is one of the popular eating places in the city. Try it for the midday lunch you will like the service and the location is most convenient—Adv.

Joseph Kiefer, employed at the post office, returned from a hunting trip this week near Forbes, Mo., accompanied by E. Roseberry and L. O. Weakley Jr. The trip was made down the river in a motor boat. Shooting was poor owing to the warm weather.

The motorists of St. Joseph are clamoring for the resurfacing of many of the streets and the "prod" of approval has been thrust deeply into the Board of Public Works to get busy. Ninth street from Frederick avenue to Hickory street, a distance of one and one-half miles will be resurfaced with asphalt.

Remember this fact—you expect to enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner and probably have an invitation extended or one received for a dinner. Well, prepare a basket and send it to the Welfare Board for someone who is not quite so fortunate as you. It will make some one glad and oh my! How much better your dinner will taste!

An inspection of the condition of the banks along the Missouri river front from Roy's branch to the pumping station north of the city discloses the ravages of the waters on both the Kansas and Missouri sides, and much work must be done to save the farms adjoining. At one point, one mile north of Belmont bend, a fifty acre cornfield has been swept away since the June rise. At one point on the Missouri side near Roy's branch the bank was caving in at the rate of one foot an hour on the average.

Mr. J. A. DeMuth was hostess for the Woman's club Monday afternoon. Mrs. D. W. Gilliland will entertain the club next Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Davis will give a debut dance at Hotel Robidoux next Thursday night in honor of their daughter, Miss Alice Fairleigh Davis. The marriage of Miss Helen Forrester Brown and Mr. J. T. Johnson occurred Monday in the parlor of Westminster Presbyterian church Rev. D. M. Claggett officiating.
